

This Week - A Prayer for Singing

Father,
We long for singing to be allowed again in church - thank you that it is not the only way to worship you and help us to remember that our whole lives are acts of worship. We thank you that we can still listen to music, sing at home and sing outside.

Please may this return as soon as possible but help us to submit to your timing and your will. Amen

Once people stop believing in God, the problem is not that they will believe in nothing; rather, the problem is that they will believe anything.

All Saints: Playing it cool on food waste !

Dear all

I thought I would update you on progress of the Community Fridge. At the PCC meeting on the 14th of June the PCC approved the recommendation to appoint a short-term project manager to get the Community Fridge up and running. This post plus associated costs was identified in the paper I sent to you a week before I submitted it to the PCC.

We have appointed Helen Blackman to be the Project Manager - she has significant experience in project management.

We held our first project team meeting this week and will meet again on 14th July. We are hoping the Community Fridge will be in place during August - there are a large number of processes that need to be place before we do open it and obviously want to get it as it should be right from the start. I will update you all after the next project meeting. If you have questions about the project please contact me in the numbers below.

PLANT SALE: Brushford

A huge thank you to all who came and bought plants and to all the wonderful helpers at last Saturday's Plant Sale. It raised, with kind donations, the super sum of £400+ for St Nicholas Church. And the weather didn't break until we had finished the clearing up! Many thanks! Jane Erith

Collect for 6th Sunday After Trinity

Merciful God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as pass our understanding: pour into our hearts such love toward you that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion Prayer

God of our pilgrimage, you have led us to the living water: refresh and sustain us as we go forward on our journey, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Psalm 24 : The earth is the Lord's and all that fills it, ♦ the compass of the world and all who dwell therein.

FIRST READING : Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ⁴just as he chose us in Christ* before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. ⁵He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. ⁷In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace ⁸that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight ⁹he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, ¹⁰as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. ¹¹In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, ¹²so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. ¹³In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; ¹⁴this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Gospel Reading: Mark 6:14-29

¹⁴ King Herod heard of it, for Jesus* name had become known. Some were saying, 'John the baptizer has been raised from the dead; and for this reason these powers are at work in him.' ¹⁵But others said, 'It is Elijah.' And others said, 'It is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old.' ¹⁶But when Herod heard of it, he said, 'John, whom I beheaded, has been raised.' ¹⁷ For Herod himself had sent men who arrested John, bound him, and put him in prison on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because Herod had married her. ¹⁸For John had been telling Herod, 'It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife.' ¹⁹And Herodias had a grudge against him, and wanted to kill him. But she could not, ²⁰for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed;* and yet he liked to listen to him. ²¹But an opportunity came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet for his courtiers and officers and for the leaders of Galilee. ²²When his daughter Herodias* came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests; and the king said to the girl, 'Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it.' ²³And he solemnly swore to her, 'Whatever you ask me, I will give you, even half of my kingdom.' ²⁴She went out and said to her mother, 'What should I ask for?' She replied, 'The head of John the baptiser.' ²⁵Immediately she rushed back to the king and requested, 'I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter.' ²⁶The king was deeply grieved; yet out of regard for his oaths and for the guests, he did not want to refuse her. ²⁷Immediately the king sent a soldier of the guard with orders to bring John's head. He went and beheaded him in the prison, ²⁸brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl. Then the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body, and laid it in a tomb.
